Note: Membership dues are renewable yearly on July 1st, therefore your first year of membership will be cut short if you join after the July 1st date – If this happens you will only miss out on some monthly newsletters for your first “short” year – everything else remains the same.

The Lakeland Players Board of Directors acts in the best interest of all LP members. If you are interested in what’s happening or have questions about our budget, please call 248-681-1090 and leave a message and/or attend our board meetings. All members are welcome!
