

welcomes you to our 53rd season!

In our current production, “E.R.” we are trying something new. This season’s youth production was a musical, “Thirteen”. So, in order to give our young actors an additional opportunity to perform this year in a non-musical format, Lakeland Players decided to give them the chance to try their hand at our adult comedy by adding an additional cast. The result is “E.R.” with two different productions to choose from. Each cast, adult and youth, put on a great performance but also put their own spin on the material. Please come and see them both! And if you do see both casts, let me know what you think. Your feedback on new ideas is so important in determining what project we will be doing in our upcoming seasons. It has been great fun putting this show together for you and we hope that you enjoy it as much as we have.

I am so glad that you are here today supporting live theatrical productions and hope to see you in attendance throughout our 2011/2012 season . To keep up to date on our performances and activities please visit us on our website:
